

Workshops

Resistant Materials WJEC

What will pupils gain from this subject?

Successful GCSE subject which enables all pupils to experience working with a range of materials, to design and make exciting projects that reflect the modern day world of manufacturing.

The Content of Key Stages

Key Stage 4 (GCSE)

A 2 year examination course to gain A* - G grade GCSE qualifications in Designing and Making with wood, metal and plastics and experiencing the manufacturing techniques and processes needed to use resistant materials in the relevant industries today. Boys and girls welcome.